

SHIP MANOEUVURING SIMULATOR & BRIDGE TEAM WORK (SMS)

INTRODUCTION

This DG Shipping approved course covers the training recommended in the IMO Model Course 1.22 and fulfils the training requirement of Navigating officers at the Management Level, specified in Table A-II/2 of STCW Course 1995 and Appendix M-II/3B of META Manual Vol. 2, concerning manoeuvring and handling a ship in various conditions and establishing good team work during Bridge Watch keeping.

OBJECTIVE

The trainee who successfully completes this course will have gained experienced in handling ships under various conditions and will make a more effective contribution to the bridge team during ship manoeuvring in normal and emergency situations.

1. Familiarization with the use of engines and helm for ship manoeuvring.
2. An understanding of the effects on the behavior of the ship of wind, current shallow water, banks and narrow channels and condition of loading.
3. A greater awareness of the importance of planning in passage or manoeuvre and the need for an alternative plan.
4. A greater understanding and awareness of efficient bridge procedures and bridge teamwork during watch keeping and ship handling, in normal and in emergency situations.
5. A greater awareness and understanding of a good interactive communication style and benefit of building up a common shared mental model of the planned passage.
6. Master pilot exchange and use of tugs

DETAILS

Duration	: 5 Days
Eligibility	: 1stMate F.G or Mate (HT) CoC and 18M Sea Service as a certified Watch keeping officer
No. of Participants	: 8
Course Facilitator	: Master Mariners / Extra Master
Course Venue	: ARI, Delhi & SHAPE, Panchkula

FEATURES

1. To reduce the possibility of accidents that might lead to loss of life, damage to property or environment, by enhancing navigational skills of navigating officers.
2. Develop & enhance officer's understanding of how to handle a vessel in various scenarios and to use the available technical and human resources effectively.

For Course Booking and Schedule at Delhi Centre, please email us at coursebookings@ariworld.com

For Course Booking and Schedule at Panchkula Centre, please email us at aripanchkula@ariworld.com

Companies can opt for Block Booking.

For more information email us at info@ariedu.com